

Hello, I'm

Rafael Duque

ABOUT ME

I'm a communicative person, open to new challenges, always full of fresh ideas.

Passionate about web design, I develop modern, functional and optimised websites, combining creativity with technical knowledge. I'm also a radio presenter, which allows me to explore communication and content creation. Additionally, I have experience in digital marketing, video editing and graphic design.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Radio Presenter, Social Media Manager and Graphic Designer

2024 – Present

CINCUP - Rádio Dom Fuas and Jornal O Portomosense

Some of my tasks include hosting entertainment and news programmes, managing social media for both media outlets, and supporting their digital transformation.

Web Designer and Graphic Designer

2020 – Present

Freelancer

As a freelancer, I specialise in web design, developing modern, functional and responsive websites tailored to each client's needs and identity. I pay special attention to usability, performance and search engine optimisation. I also carry out graphic design work.

Graphic Designer, Web Designer and Social Media Manager

2021 - 2024

ICODI

At ICODI, I was responsible for designing, developing and maintaining websites, managing all social media profiles, and creating graphic design projects (such as logos, flyers, social media posts, etc.). I also handled invoicing and customer support via email, phone or in face-to-face/online meetings.

Radio Presenter

2017 - 2019

Dance FM

Dance FM was an online radio project where I hosted several shows focused on music and entertainment for a young audience. It was also where I first started managing social media accounts.
